Hellboy: If I'm caught in Ragnarok, and start a new character with Rune mastery, Being an unredeemable fan of Defense master, I went for Runesmith. Conqueror is at lvl 33 nearing end of Normal act 3, but i'm starting to have doubts. I went with a 1.1 Int/Dex stat distribution, with occasional point in Str for gear (3 up to now) and planned to use Transmutation to scale elemental damage, but then it dawned on me that shield strikes would scale with Str since Rune weapon isn't an aura that will apply to them. So i have 2 options now: Stick to the plan, shield strikes won't do much damage but will still be helpful for their debuff. Downside is i'm not sure about endgame viability of this. Roll the character since it's still low leveled to make a 1.1 Str/Dex spread. But in this case wouldn't it be just a straight-up worse Conqueror? My playtime being limited, i would appreciate advice from more experienced players. By the way, for those who already went through Ragnarok, did they add a way to restat attributes? It would save me two days of play, since even Grim Dawn came to it, there might be hope.Thanks in advance!
